FAQ's

Am I limited to the artists/suggestions that are featured in this proposal and on your website?

No. We have an in depth knowledge of the UK event scene. Thus, contact us with your instructions and we will then direct you to specific artist websites until you find what you are looking for.

How do I know that the suggestions in this proposal are suitable for my event?

We have an incredible client retention rate: this shows that we deliver the ultimate service and the best advice. Please call us anytime so we can explore all the event solutions available to you.

Do your artists travel?

The artists on our "tried and tested" list travel to all parts of the UK and have vast event experience.

Am I paying a premium rate?

We will save you time and money: We deliver the most competitive prices because of our buying power and negotiating skills with artists. We offer a price comparison service. We also provide invaluable advice about production and event logistics which often leads to cost savings.

What other benefits do you offer with your service?

We offer a full event management service. Reliability, punctuality and professionalism are guaranteed with the confirmation documentation that we provide. In the unlikely event of artist illness, we will work around the clock to ensure suitable cover.
